The University of Nottingham and the Higher Education Authority have just launched the online 2018 Postgraduate Taught Experience Survey (PTES).

9 April 2018 – 15 May

This is a great opportunity for you to give feedback on your experience. This survey is not about league tables, it's about helping us make changes that will improve the experience for future taught postgraduate students.

Please take part and help us to make the experience for future taught postgraduate students even better:
